

LABOR FEDERATION ENDORSES LEAGUE

But Does Not Take Back
Its Stand for a Free
Ireland.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 21.—Organized labor endorsed the League of Nations covenant and the labor provisions it contains which, according to a cable message from President Wilson, have been weakened, although not materially. In giving its approval by a vote of 29,750 affiliated organizations against 420, the reconstruction convention of the American Federation of Labor made it clear that "nothing in this endorsement can be construed as denying the right of self-determination and freedom to Ireland and as recognized by this convention." An amendment containing the Irish provision was adopted unanimously.

The President's cable in reply to one sent him by Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, asking information about changes reported in press dispatches, follows:

"Your message came while I was in Belgium and reached me too late to make full reply, but as I indicated in an earlier message, while the labor provisions are somewhat weakened it is the opinion of friends of labor and my own opinion that they are not materially weakened and that they will constitute a most serviceable Magna Charter. Will cable labor provisions but fear it will be too late for the convention."

A Birthday Party.
Samuel Edgar Lane Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl O. Bryan, was six years old on Thursday, June 19, and the event was celebrated by a birthday party. A large number of the young friends of Master Lane were present. Tables were set on the lawn and ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served. Mrs. Bryan was assisted in serving by Misses Florence Swager and Mary Billings. An enjoyable time was had by the youngsters on the spacious lawn. Many beautiful presents were received by Lane.

Among those present were: Carmine and Mary Evangelista, Pauline and Irene Talbot, Pauline and Lucile Martin, Rebecca and Dessel Wallbourn, Maxine Barbe, Maxine Oakes, Nellie Mason, Mildred King, Ethel Davis, Bonnie Bassett, Frances Thorn, Wilma Gillingham, Gail Berdine and Masters Gilbert Mason, Ralph Thorn, Ralph Martin, Marcus Barbe, Lynchford and Edmund Snoderly, Roy Bassett, Stanley Wood, Loyal Baker, Eugene Merrifield, Lowell Oakes, Chester Wallbourn, Ray and Burl Robison, Ray Smith and Kenneth Summers.

A Boozie Pouring.
Complaints have been recently made that one Tony Alloy was selling a brand of booze known as "pick handle" at his joint in the village of Brisco, near here. On Thursday Special Constable Q. H. Martin went up and searched the premises finding a barrel of the beverage which he brought to town. Tony Alloy, the proprietor, was not arrested being already confined in jail on a pistol totting charge. On Friday morning the booze was emptied in the sewer at the corner of Main street and Alley 2.

Disturbers of the Peace.
Several rather large boys, almost young men were very noisy and annoying on Thursday night about midnight. They came into town in an automobile and proceeded to bombard the houses of peaceful residents. If such conduct is persisted in the boys may need the services of a physician to extract shot from their persons.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years Suffering. Says
Cardui Made Her Well.

TEXAS CITY, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schull, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered a terrible nervous wreck. I was unable to do any kind of work."

"I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep, I dreamed a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head."

"I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties."

"I was not able to do anything until I got Cardui. In two or three bottles, in all, my nervousness, cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui."

"Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. I would wonder for me."

"Try Cardui for your troubles—made Cardui medicinal by the best recommended medical books as being of benefit in nerve troubles, and a year of use has shown that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today."
